

Connecting the Past and the Present: Celebrating North Carolina's American Indian Heritage

Take-Away Reflection Questions (Unit 1, Lesson 1)

1. Before class today, when someone said “archaeology,” what are some things that came to your mind?
2. How did what you learned today change what you thought you understood about archaeology?
3. Name three tools that archaeologists use, and explain how are they used.
4. What kind of work have archaeologists done in North Carolina?
5. What is the most interesting thing you learned from archaeologists exploring ancient North Carolinian history?

This lesson plan was created by Ethan Brooks-Livingston of Catawba Valley Community College as part of the 2021-2022 UNC World View Global Fellows Program. For more information about the program, please visit <http://worldview.unc.edu/>.